Ooo Numb. 1614.

The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, April 17. 1707.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated April 22.

Legborne, April 1.

THE Earl of Peterborow arriv'd here to Day from Barcelona, whence he came the 25th paſt, on board the Reſolution in Company with the Milford and the Enterprize: But two Days ago falling in with a Squadron of ſix French Men of War, he remov'd into the Enterprize as being the beſt Sailor, and is happily arriv'd here with the Milford, leaving the Reſolution chas'd by the Enemy. His Lordſhip will go from hence to Genoa deſigning 'tis ſaid to return to England: He reports he left King Charles at Barcelona, but that he was on his Departure from thence for the Army; that the Enemy's Army were ſtill in their Quarters, ſuperiour in Horſe, but inferiour in Foot to the Allies.

Genoa, April 3. This Morning an Expreſs arriv'd here from Vintimiglia, with Advice, that the 31ſt paſt in the Morning 6 French Men of War that came out of Toulon met an Engliſh Man of War call'd the Reſolution, commanded by Captain Mordaunt Son to the Earl of Peterborow. The Engliſh Ship ſeeing the Odds ſo great, crowded all the Sail ſhe could, to make her Eſcape, but her Mainſail coming by the board, three of the French Ships got up with her: Upon which the Captain reſolv'd to defend her, and maintain'd a Fight with them all the Day, till he had loſt his Foremaſt and ſaw the three other French Ships approaching: Then he ran his Ship aſhore at Vintimiglia, where he was ſafe, the Cannon of the Place defending him againſt the French who chac'd him thither. Captain Mordaunt, who is wounded in the Thigh, has ſav'd all his Ship's Company with what ſhe had on board, and hopes to put her afloat again. We hear one of the French Ships was ſo diſabled in this Engagement, that ſhe is gone to Toulon to refit. The five others, which lye off this Place, ſent in a Boat this Morning which confirm'd the foreſaid Particulars.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated April 22.

Letters from Milan of the 9th of April confirm, that the 2d the French march'd out of Mantua, and that the Imperialiſts enter'd it to the Number of 1700 Men, who are commanded by General Wetzel, the Prince of Darmſtad being return'd to his Camp at Notre Dame des Graces. The Dutcheſs of Mantua and the Princeſs of Vaudemont have paſs'd by the Borromean Iſlands in their Way to France. Theſe Letters add, that the Republick of Genoa had ſent a Sum of Money to Milan, in part of the Contributions they are to pay the Emperour.

From Roveredo 'tis adviſ'd, that the 10th Inſtant they expected there 900 Recruits for the Regiment of Zumjungen, who had already paſs'd by Bolzano, and were to be follow'd by other Recruits to the Number of 10000.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated April 22.

Paris, April 18. Yeſterday the Marſhal de Villars was a long time with the King and M. de Chamillard, receiv'd his laſt Orders, and to Day or to Morrow at furtheſt will ſet out for Strasbourg. The Army he is to command in Germany will conſiſt but of 32000 Men. All the Officers that are to command on our Sea-Coaſts, are order'd to repair to their reſpective Poſts. 'Tis believ'd this will be a very warm Campaign in the Netherlands, becauſe our beſt Troops are march'd thither. By an Expreſs from the Duke of Vendome we have an Account, that he arriv'd at Liſle the 15th Inſtant. The ordinary Letters from Madrid of the 4th Inſtant tell us, that the Enemy having drawn all their Troops together, were encamp'd between Elche and Monarcoua, and ſeem'd to deſign to march directly for Caſtile. Upon this Motion, the Duke of Berwick detach'd 4000 Horſe and 1500 Grenadiers towards Vellar, to ſecure ſome narrow Paſſages in the Mountains, and retir'd with his Army towards Murello. 'Twas believ'd there would ſpeedily be a Battle, and that the Enemy would force us to it, before the Duke of Berwick is reinforc'd by the Troops from Rouſſillon and Navarre. Theſe Letters add, that King Charles III arriv'd at Barcelona the 22d of March.

Hague, April 8. 'Letters that arriv'd by the laſt 'Poſt, as well from Vienna as from Paderborn, and 'the Report M. Itterſum who is return'd from Munſter has made to the States, give good Ground to 'hope that the Affair of Munſter will ſoon be determin'd to the Satisfaction of the States. Their 'Miniſter at the Court of Vienna has writ to them, 'that at length the Emperour has had Regard to 'the Inſtances as well of the States, as of ſeveral 'Princes of the Empire: And Count Zinzendorf 'the Emperour's Chancellor, has by expreſs Order 'of his Imperial Majeſty intimated to the Miniſter 'of this State, that he will not only revoke his 'Excluſion of the Biſhop of Paderborn; but will by 'an Expreſs inform the Court of Rome of his ſo 'doing. This Proceeding of his Imperial Majeſty 'will reſtore a good Correſpondence and Harmony 'between him and the States. The Court of Vienna have however previouſly inſiſted that the 'Biſhop of Paderborn ſhould make due Submiſſions 'by a Letter to his Imperial Majeſty, with which 'that Biſhop has readily complied. By the Way, 'there are two Incidents in this Affair of Munſter, 'that are worth relating; One is, Cardinal Paolucci wrote lately from Rome to the Cardinal of Saxe-'Zeits at Vienna, that the Pope had given the 'Imperial Court time enough to conſider what they 'had beſt do, and could no longer defer pronouncing a Deciſion on the ſaid Affair. The other 'is, the leſſer Part of the Canons of Munſter, 'having had a Meeting with the greater Number who elected the Biſhop of Paderborn, have 'reſolv'd to write to the Pope to deſire him 'to grant his Confirmation to the ſaid Biſhop. 'The taking into Service the Saxon Troops offer'd 'by King Auguſtus, will be concluded by the 'Duke of Marlborough; the Queen of England has 'facilitated that Affair by declaring ſhe will pay 'two thirds of the Charge of thoſe Troops: Her 'Majeſty extends her Generoſity further, being 'willing to advance the Money King Auguſtus deſires to put his Troops into a Condition for Service. 'Tis thought her Majeſty inclin'd the more 'readily to do this, in Conſideration of the States 'having augmented their Horſe by an Addition of '8 Men to each Troop. Three Days ago, an A-'gent from Genoa arriv'd here, with Letters from 'that Republick to the States, ſuppos'd to be about 'the Contributions demanded by Prince Eugene.

Hague, April 15. The whole Chapter of Munſter have actually written to the Pope, to deſire him to confirm the Election of the Biſhop of Paderborn. The Count de Goez the Imperial Miniſter, being about to leave this Place where he has reſided ſome Time, has begun to make his Viſits for taking Leave of the ſeveral Miniſters. He will leave behind the Character of a very able Miniſter, and of a perfectly well accompliſh'd Nobleman. The College of Nobles of this Province have newly made a Law for reforming the extravagant Expences which 'tis become a Cuſtom to make at Funerals and in Mourning:

Mourning: They have particularly ordain'd, that none of their College shall give Mourning to their Domestick Servants for the Death of their Children, nor even for the Death of their Wives; in either Case they shall not cover their Coaches with black Cloath, nor have a Room of State hung with black, nor put up Scutcheons over their Doors. This Resolution is universally approv'd by all wise Men; because the Vanity of making great Funerals has often been no little Prejudice to Families.

Hague, April 19. The States are extremely satisfied with the present Conduct of the Court of Vienna in the Affair of Munster. They have receiv'd Advice, that the 31st of last Month the Cardinal of Saxe Zeits wrote to Rome, to signify his Imperial Majesty's Intention on that Affair; and that an Express from Vienna was dispatch'd to Rome the 2d Instant with a further Declaration concerning it. So that 'tis confidently expected the Bishop of Paderborn's Election will be confirm'd by the Pope in the first Consistory, which is of Course to be held the 14th of this Month. Letters of the 5th Instant from Stockholm say the Queen Grand-Mother had been indispos'd of a Fever, but was pretty well recover'd.

Hague, April 22. The States of the Province of Holland who had been some Time assembled are separated. They had first dispos'd of some military Employments: There were 3 Competitors for the Swiss Regiment of Tscharner, viz. M. du May who has been long in the Service of the States, Count Dona, and M. d'Erlach; the latter is at the Court of Berlin and was recommended by the King of Prussia; Count Dona who is in Portugal, solicited by his Friends; and M. du May made Application in Person. He had the Recommendation of the Regents of Berne, the Regiment being rais'd and furnish'd to the States by that Canton; and is an experienc'd Officer, whose Conduct has all along been to the intire Satisfaction of the States: The said Swiss Regiment is given to him. The Command of the Regiment of Walloons is given to M. Fornier, but Brigadier Gaudecker is to receive the Profits of it. M. Sgravenmoor has the Regiment of Tennagel. Lieutenant General Hompesch, who hitherto had only the Emoluments of Major of the Regiment of Blue-Guards, is now to have the ordinary and extraordinary Profits of Collonel of that Regiment. M. de St. Maurice, a Captain of the Guards, is made Governour of Gertruydembourg in the Room of M. Boham, deceas'd. From Paris they write the 18th Instant, that the Duke of Vendome had in Confidence told one of his Friends before he set out for Flanders, that he had leave to venture a Battle when he should find it adviseable, and that he was resolv'd to lay hold of the first fair Opportunity that should present. These Advices from Paris add, that the freshest Letters from Madrid imported, that the Arrival of the Duke of Orleans was impatiently expected, till when it was resolv'd not to open the Campaign, the rather because the Forces he would bring with him were necessary to secure the Succes.

At the Desire of several Persons of Quality lately arriv'd.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, this present Thursday, being the 17th of April, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Recruiting Officer. Written by the Author of the Beaux Stratagem The Part of Serjeant Kite to be perform'd by Mr. Estcourt. With a Piece of Musick beginning Britons strick home, &c. And a Piece of Instrumental Musick on the Stage, to be perform'd by the best Masters. With Dancing by Monsieur du Ruel, Monsieur Cherrier, Monsieur Dubargues, Miss Santlow and others; particularly, a new Dance compos'd in honour of the Union, as 'twas perform'd at Court, being desir'd by several Persons of Quality.

By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Thursday, being the 17th of April, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Recruiting Officer. The parts of Mr. Ballance by Mr. Keene, Mr. Worthy by Mr. Mills, Captain Plume by Mr. Wilks, Captain Brazen by Mr. Cibber, Serjeant Kite by Mr. Pack, Bullock by Mr. Bullock, Costar Pear-main by Mr. Norris, Thomas Apple-tree by Mr. Fairbank, Silvia by Mrs. Oldfield, Melinda by Mrs. Porter, Rose by Mrs. Bicknel. And to Morrow being Friday, the 18th of April will be presented a new Tragedy (never Acted before) call'd, Phedra and Hippolitus.

These Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

AN Entertainment by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Curtell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsman and Pack of Hounds, the Sham Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Bells: All Instruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be seen this present Evening at 7 a Clock at the Young Devil Tavern near Temple-Bar. Price 1 s.

At the desire of several Ladies of Quality, for the Benefit of Mr. Tho. Dean, Jun. At the Great Room in York-Buildings, to Morrow, will be perform'd a Consort of Vocal and Instrumental Musick, by the best Masters, viz A full Piece of the famous Signior Pepusch, by Mr. Banister, Mr. Dean, Mr. Latour, &c. A set of Airs for the Arch Lute and Violin, by the Two Mr. Deans, compos'd on purpose by Mr. Dean, Jun A Sonata for the Arch-Lute and Flute Alleman, by Mr. Dean, Jun. and Mr Latour. Singing to the Arch-Lute by Mr. Hughes. A Solo of the famous Archangelo Corelli, by Mr. Dean, Sen. A Cantata to the Arch-Lute, by Mr. Newbury. Singing to the Arch-Lute, by a Gentleman come on purpose from Worcester. Beginning at 7 of the Clock. Tickets are to be had at the Smirna Coffee-House in the Pall-Mall, Nando's near Temple-Bar, Robin's Coffee-House in Exchange-Alley, and at Mr. Blaney's Sword-Cutler in Cornhill.

This Day at Edmund Curll's Bookseller, at the Peacock without Temple-Bar, will begin to be Sold the Library of the Reverend Mr Kingston, (the Price of each Book being set in the first blank Leaf,) being an Extraordinary Collection of the most valuable Authors in most Faculties, in Greek, Latin, Italian, French, and English, with most of the Classick Authors of various Editions in usum Delphini & cum Notis Variorum, several Printed by Aldus, Stephens, Colineus, Elz &c. and a curious Collection of the best Modern French Authors, the Works of M Dacier, Monsieur Menage, le Clerc, C. d'Orsat, C. Richelieu, M. Bayle, and for the Generality neatly bound and gilt. The Sale to continue this and the next Week from 9 in the Morning to 9 at Night.

At the Great House in Duke street, near St. James's-Square, next to the Ld Jersey's, will be sold by Auction on Tuesday next the 22d Instant, the Houshold Goods, late of a Person of Quality, viz. Velvet, Damask and other Beds and Beding, Peer and other Glasses, Japan'd Skreens, Cabinets, Chairs, Pictures, and all other Furniture. The Goods to be seen to Morrow, Saturday and Monday before, and Catalogues to be had Gratis at the Place of Sale.

Since several Ill-minded Persons have for some time Counterfeited the true GOLDEN SNUFF, so well known for its particular Vertue in Curing several Diseases of the Head, specified in the Bill of Directions, the Author (to prevent Peoples being any longer impos'd upon by such Spurious Stuff) hath been at the trouble and charge to stamp every Paper with the Figure of an Elephant, seal'd up with the same Impression, a Latin Inscription being round the Figure; since which many Substantial Tradesmen have been very desirous to Sell it by Retail, because the true may now be so easily distinguished from the false, it is therefore to be had at the several Places following, viz. at Mason's Coffee-House in Bartholomew-Lane behind the Royal Exchange, John's Coffee-House in Swithin's-Alley near the Royal Exchange, Mr. Hilliard Toyshop at the Ship over-against the Royal Exchange-Gate in Cornhill, Mrs. Orborn at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstans Church in Fleetstreet, Mr. Gibs next Door to Charles-street in Kings-street, Westminster, Toyshop, Paris Coffee-house in Suffolk-street near Pall-mall, St. Alban's Coffee-house in St. Alban's-street near Pall-mall, Great Queen-street Coffee-house in Westminster, Pon's Coffee-house in Cecil's-Court in St. Martin's-Lane, Smyrna Coffee-house in Pall-mall, Mrs. Foster at the entry of the Hospital Gate in Smithfield, Mrs. Rebecca Harris in Burgate, Canterbury, Linen-Draper, besides the Places mention'd in our last, at 1 s. a Paper. And other Persons living more remote, and willing to Sell it, may have the same Advantage as the others have, and their Names or Places of abode inserted, applying themselves to the Author at the Green Balcony in Durham-yard in the Strand, London.

Proposals for Printing an Ecclesiastical History of Great Britain, chiefly of England, from the first planting of Christianity, to the Death of K. Charles II. with a Brief Account of the Affairs of Religion in Ireland. Collected from the best ancient Historians, Councils and Records. In 2 Volumes. By Jeremy Collier, M. A. The 1st Volume, which will come down to the End of K. Henry VII. will contain about 200 Sheets in large Folio. The Price to Subscribers, on small Paper, will be 25 s. in Sheets; a 7th gratis. The Royal Paper 2 Guineas. Proposals at large may be had, and Subscriptions taken in, for the Author only, by W. Bowyer, Printer, in White Fryers, and by the Undertakers, S Keeble and B. Tooke, Booksellers, in Fleetstreet.

Literæ a Celeberrimis Pastoribus & Professoribus Ecclesiæ & Academiæ Genevensis ad Universitatem Oxoniensem Transmissæ, una cum Responso ejusdem Universitatis Oxon. Ad eosdem, Literas, in frequenti Convocatione Omnium Doct. Magist. Regentium & non Regentium lecto & approbato, Feb. 5. 1706-7 Oxonii, e Theatro Sheldoniano 1707, Prostant apud Jonam Bowyer ad Insigne Rosæ in Ludgate-street juxta Cœmeterium D Pauli.

This Day is publish'd,

An Essay against Uncharitableness. Wherein the Secret Springs of that Vice are traced, and the Mischevious Effects of it briefly survey'd. Written to expose that most Unchristian Iniquity of Censures, Revilings and Church-Anathemas, on the Account of doubtful Disputables in Christianity. Printed for J. Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultrey, in Octavo, price 6 d.

This Day is publish'd,

The Mischief of delaying Sentence against an Evil Work; in a Sermon Preach'd before the Lord Mayor and Magistracy of Dublin, in St. Michael's-Church, Dublin, December 24 1706. on Eccles. 8. 11. By his Grace Wm Lord Archbishop of Dublin London, Printed for B Barker at the White-Hart, and C. King at the Judges-head in Westminster-Hall.

The Blessings of the Sixth Year: A Sermon Preach'd before the Queen at St. James's Chappel, on Saturday the 8th of March 1706 7 By the Right Reverend Father in God Wm Lord Bishop of Carlile. Publish'd by her Majesty's special Command. Printed for A. and J. Churchill at the Black Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.

A Paraphrase and Notes on the Epistles of St. Paul to the Galatians, 1st and 2d to the Corinthians, Romans, and Ephesians. To which is prefix'd an Essay for the Understanding of St. Paul's Epistles by consulting St. Paul himself. Printed for A. and J. Churchill at the Black-Swan in Pater-Noster-Row.

LONDON: Printed, and sold by Sam. Buckley at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.